
ANDY J KRANENBURG, M.D.

Southern Oregon Orthopedics
2780 E. Barnett, Suite 200
Medford, OR 97504

Home (541) 702-2146
Cell (541) 864-0263
andy.kranenburg@gmail.com

PROFILE

Dedicated Physician and Board Certified Orthopaedic Surgeon, Fellowship Trained in Spinal Surgery. A Strong Foundation in Classic Principles Complements an Application of Minimally Invasive and Non-Operative Techniques for Superior Care.

EDUCATION

FELLOWSHIP (Surgery of the Spine)

August 2008-July 2009

San Francisco Spine Institute and Spine Care Medical Group, San Francisco and Daly City, California

- Operative privileges at Seton Hospital, St. Francis Memorial Hospital, Presidio Surgical Center performing surgeries of the cervical, thoracic, and lumbar spine as well as general orthopaedic trauma.
- Training includes and encompasses classical open decompression, microdiscectomy, interbody fusion via anterior, lateral, posterior, and transverse approaches, posterolateral fusion with and without instrumentation, dorsal column stimulator trials and implants, motion preservation including interspinous spacers, disc replacement, and facet replacement.

RESIDENCY (Orthopaedic Surgery)

July 2004-June 2008

Oregon Health and Science University, Portland, Oregon

- Completed dedicated rotations in subspecialties of Spine, Tumor, Foot and Ankle, Trauma, Hand and Microvascular, Pediatrics, Adult Reconstruction, and General Orthopaedics. Venues include two Level 1 trauma centers, a Pediatrics Hospital, Shriners Hospital, and a VA Hospital.
- Elected 3 years as the Resident Representative to the Orthopaedics Education Committee.

INTERNSHIP (General Surgery)

June 2003-June 2004

Oregon Health and Science University, Portland, Oregon

- Included General Surgery and subspecialties of Plastics, Vascular, Pediatrics, Trauma, and Neurosurgery, as well as Emergency Medicine, Anesthesia, Radiology, and three months of Orthopaedics and Rehabilitation

DOCTOR OF MEDICINE

1999-2003

University of Oklahoma College of Medicine, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

- Graduated ranked #1 in class of 150
- Elected Class Speaker at Commencement, 2003
- Awards included Merck Book Award, Coyne Campbell Scholarship, Junior AOA (Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society), C.E. Williams Scholarship, Podilarian finalist, Moorman Award, Gayle Kimball Scholarship, Honors Research Scholar, National Merit Scholarship
- GPA: 4.0

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

1995-1999

University of Oklahoma College of Arts and Sciences, Norman, Oklahoma

- Summa cum Laude
 - Major in Zoology, minor in History
 - National Merit Scholar, Phi Beta Kappa, UROP research grant recipient
 - GPA: 4.0
-